German shepard/huskey

Age: Young
Size: Medium
Gender: Female

She's a good dog all around, obedient and energetic, we just can't keep her anymore i have my hands full with my new fourth baby and I don't have the energy like I use to, she has a crate, food, leash, dog bowls including a slow feeding dog dish, acana brand food...just message me for pictures if seriously interested, she's still young so not ready to be fixed yet... up to date on shots tho, 8 months old, she's free, I'm stressed out, I'm tired...I cant match her energy and it isnt fair when my focus is on the kids and she feels left out, thought it would be different but its too much with a puppy, she is crated trained , can bring her to you anywhere in yellowknife
