Puppies

Hello everyone! 50, each

We have had an unexpected surprise I guess we were meant to have just one more litter. Our boy went on a fun excursion and now our Sadie girl has 10 beautiful, healthy puppies looking for their furever family!

Momma is a long haired German Shepherd. Dad is a black retriever.

They will be vet checked, have first shots and will have been dewormed multiple times before going to their new homes.

If you're interested in one of these gorgeous pups please give me text a message ??

Price: $ 50.00 or best offer
