Inuvik Parka Enterprise Wool Jacket

This stunning, like-new vintage jacket from Inuvik Parka Enterprise is a rare find! Likely never worn, it was manufactured in the 1970s in the Canadian Arctic, showcasing incredible craftsmanship and attention to detail. This heavy-duty parka features:

- Pure Virgin Wool Inner Layer: Warm and durable
- Removable Blue Outer Shell: With beautiful embroidery of traditional Inuit design
- White Hood Trim: Unsure of the exact material, but it's pure white and soft
- Size 12 (Fits Like M/L): Although tagged as a women's size 12, it's likely to fit a medium to large based on contemporary sizing.

This is a handmade piece, almost certainly a one-of-a-kind, making it not just a functional winter jacket, but a collector's item.

The tag reads: "Manufactured in the Canadian Arctic by Inuvik Parka Enterprise, Inuvik, NWT."

This jacket is a rare piece of Inuvik history, combining warmth, craftsmanship, and timeless style. Perfect for vintage collectors or anyone looking for a durable and unique winter jacket.
