Long-Range Rifles

Are you a licensed firearms enthusiast? A Marksman with impeccable tastes? Fancy yourself to be a long-range shooter? If you answered "yes" to the above, I have the rifles you've been dreaming of. They've been sitting too long in my safe, unused, and need to go to somebody who will give them the love and use they deserve. If they don't sell locally, they'll end up on consignment in a Southern shop the next time I fly out.

Cash is king, but I might consider interesting trades of equal value, perhaps with some cash going one way or the other. I'd be particularly interested in a motorcycle like a bagger (Road Glide, Street Glide, etc), adventure touring (Africa Twin, Ténéré, etc) or sport touring (FJR1300, VFR, etc). I'm open to reasonable offers, and more than willing to decline unreasonable ones. Lowball offers will simply be ignored. Send me a message via YK Trader and let me know what you're offering.
